HBL IS ALL ABOUT BRINGING THE COMMUNITY TOGETHER
BY GROWING PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL RELATIONSHIPS

publisher's note

HAPPY Valentine's Day

HBL SINGLE MINGLE IS FEBRUARY 19TH!

Welcome to the February HBL Magazine! This month we are featuring some single residents and our single HBL Sponsors.

Valentine's Day has always been the holiday to celebrate romantic love, friendship, and admiration. In some cases, single people have a misconception that you need to have a "partner" or be in a relationship to have to celebrate this holiday.

HBL was asked to feature and get single people together, of all ages. We are not playing matchmaker, but rather planning fun events for single people to meet and find others to share common interests with. However, if a relationship happens, that would be wonderful!

When I was single, the most important people to me were my other single girlfriends! If you do not have that network, life could be a bit lonely.

HBL will be having our first official "Single Mingle" Mardi Gras style on Feb. 19 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. on the closed-off pedestrian-only Cleveland Street, now known as the District, in Downtown Clearwater.

HBL is all about bringing the community together by growing personal and professional relationships through events such as "Party in the Park" or "Neighbor Night Out" events. We also pride ourselves on being selective about the local business owners we partner with. HBL provides a monthly Sponsor Networking Breakfast for business owners to have the opportunity to network and fulfill our vision of "growing our businesses together" through our referral program.

If you are single from ages 21-91, male or female, please join us at Single Mingle to meet new friends!

If you are not single but know people who are, please tell them about our event and have them like Harbor Bluffs Living Magazine on Facebook and follow us on Instagram. If anyone would like to get on our email list for the upcoming events, please email me at Devin.pappas@N2pub.com. We look forward to meeting everyone in 2021!

Welcome new HBL Sponsor- fashion designer, Laurenti Di Pietro who provided the fashions for the February single photoshoot. If you would like to purchase any of these garments please visit Laurentidipietro.com

We are also always looking for new families, pets, articles, recipes, and anything else you think is "cool." Text 727-657-9615 or email Devin.pappas@N2pub.com

Thank you. We could not do this magazine without you or our HBL Sponsors!

Bella of Palmetto

SWEET NEIGHBOR
ADOPTS SWEET BELLA

precious pets

By Bella

“I have the cutest puppy, “Bella,” a Shih Tzu and Bichon Frise mix called a “Teddy Bear.” I was fostering it for Joe, my neighbor across the street and he passed so she came to me. I am so lucky. We go to Maggie’s for breakfast every weekend. I also have an abandoned orange tabby “Butters” who ran away, then came home 10 days later. They like to wrestle!” – Mary Beth Lawton

Hi, my name is: Bella

My mom and Dad’s names are Mark and Mary Beth Lawton

My nickname is Bella-Bella. My dad, Joe Centore, fell and had to go to the hospital, so I came to live with Butters until my dad got better. Sadly, he passed away, so this became my forever home. I remember him when I walk by his house. The last time I saw him, my new mom took me to the nursing home and I immediately ran to him through the gate. I was able to give him lots of face licks.

My breed is: Teddy Bear

My age is: 14 months old

My favorite human food is: Bacon

My biggest fear is: Being alone

My favorite thing to do is: Go to Maggie Mae's and see my friends Mason, Davis, and Barney, run in the backyard with Butters and sit in my mom's lap. I also have friends in the house behind me, River and Sadie run to the fence so we can see each other. I love all dogs big and small.

HBL - Well, Bella, we would like to meet them, too. Could you tell your doggie friends how fun Carol Moorhead, Dog-Tog Pet Photographer is, please?

My favorite toy is: Plush pink and blue bone that squeaks. It is just my size.

What I hate most is waiting for mom and dad to get home

Where do I sleep? On my pillow

Do I love car rides? My favorite place to drive is? I love car rides, my favorite place is Maggie Mae's. I go everywhere with my mom on the week-ends. The cleaners, going to get mom's nails done, Home Depot, Wilcox nursery, and, of course, pet supermarket.

Do I snore? No, of course, not.

I also have other pets in the house, they are: Butters, he ran away for 10 days. I was very scared and then he came home. He and I wrestle a lot. I love chasing him in the backyard. Just when Butters closes his eyes, I like to bark and pounce on him. I love him.

One Pot Garlic Butter CHICKEN THIGHS AND Mushrooms

PREP TIME: 5 MINUTES
COOK TIME: 20 MINUTES
TOTAL TIME: 25 MINUTES

resident recipe

INGREDIENTS

- 4 tbsp butter, divided
- PINCH of salt, very small amount - but if using low sodium stock or unsalted butter, ok to use a little more salt
- 4 chicken thighs, bones removed (skinless or with skin OK)
- 6-10 cloves garlic, sliced in half or finely diced (I like big chunks of garlic but realize most don't)
- 8 oz cremini mushrooms, stems removed and wiped clean
- 1 cup chicken stock
- 1 pinch to 1 tsp red pepper flakes, depending on your desired spicy level
- 1/2 cup diced cilantro, optional
- 2 tbsp lemon juice
- 1/4 cup parmesan cheese

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Heat a heavy pan on medium-high until very hot.
2. Add butter, swirl around the pan, and let melt.
3. When butter is foamy and melted, add chicken thighs.
4. Very lightly salt chicken thighs (ONE pinch for all things - don't overdo it!)
5. Cook chicken thighs for 5 minutes on each side, until lovely golden brown.
6. When chicken thighs are well browned, remove from pan - do not drain pan grease.
7. Add garlic to the pan, stir well.
8. Add mushrooms to the pan, stirring occasionally to keep mushrooms and garlic from burning.
9. Add the second half of butter to the pan, let melt.
10. Let garlic and mushrooms brown - about 4-6 minutes. Do not let the garlic burn, reduce heat if needed.
11. Add red pepper flakes (add slowly according to your taste) and cilantro when chicken and mushrooms are lovely golden browned.
12. Add stock, lemon juice, and cheese.
13. Stir well, being sure to scrape up any browned bits from the bottom of the pan.
14. Bring to a boil, let reduce and thicken slightly for 2 minutes.
15. Add chicken thighs back to the pan, let the sauce reduce another 5-8 minutes, flipping chicken occasionally until thick and chicken thighs reach 165 internal temp.
16. Remove from pan and serve immediately!

MAUI NO KA OI- MAUI IS THE BEST!

HAWAII IS FOR LOVERS,
ADVENTURERS, AND BEACHGOERS!

Maui is an extremely popular destination with travelers all across the US, so when Governor David Ige opened up travel to Maui in October again, I knew I had to pay a visit to check out how travel to Hawaii has changed post-Covid. Currently, US travelers to Maui have to provide proof of a negative Covid test taken within 72 hours of departure time of your flight from the mainland to the island. In addition, travelers have to fill out an online travel authorization form that includes uploading your test results.

One of the more complex requirements for any travel these days is the proof of a valid, negative Covid test. The Hawaii travel authorization website has a list of approved medical facilities that can provide timely testing.

I had been in Aruba the days leading up to my departure, so for this trip, I decided to take advantage of the United same-day testing facilities located at San Francisco airport. We had to schedule an appointment in advance for this test and it is recommended you do it more than 3 hours before your departure. It was a very quick and well-organized testing site and we actually received our negative results within 12 minutes of taking the test.

Our nonstop flights landed in Maui at 10.05 pm. We were able to complete the health check, present all supporting documents, and get our luggage within 30 minutes of arriving.

Maui is breathtaking and a true paradise for lovers! One of my favorite benefits of traveling during these times is that most destinations are way below capacity and that was certainly evident in Maui.

Hawaii is extremely strict with Covid safety protocols. Masks are required in public spaces at all times, unless you are stationary, like sitting in a restaurant or in a beach chair. There are hefty fines to be paid if you are found to be without a mask. We stayed in Kihei, at a private condo, with a breathtaking view of the ocean, and had rented a car.

During one of our excursions, we ventured out to the Road to Hana. The Road to Hana is only 52 miles but the average speed 25 mph. It is known as Divorce Highway. It has 617 turns and 59 bridges, many only 1 lane. It travels along the edge of many sheer cliffs. The road starts in Kahului and ends in Hana. It is the longest rainforest highway in the USA.

Another excursion was the summit of Haleakala, the highest elevation on Maui. Being up with the rising sun makes you feel like you are all alone in the world, I highly recommend this trip. And those of you who are more adventurous, you can even hike down the crater, about two miles and I can promise you it's an experience like no other. More of a biker? You can rent a bike and transfer up to the summit and then ride the way down from the summit. Make sure your brakes are in perfect working order! As I mentioned before, Maui is currently at a much lower capacity with visitors and there were very few cars traveling with us, making the whole experience even more magical and removed. The pictures certainly don't do it justice!

All information was current at the time of writing this article, but as we know, protocols change daily so be sure to talk to a trusted travel agent before booking any vacation. A good advisor will keep you up to date on current protocols to ensure you will have the vacation of a lifetime, even in Covid times.

HBL Turkey Trot on Thanksgiving 2020

The Best Way to Begin a Day of Eating is to Burn Calories First

To many annual "Turkey Trotters," it was disappointing to see the Clearwater Turkey Trot go virtual this year. Starting the day at 6 am by attending and participating in the 5K (or longer) run/walk has been a tradition to many of us for so long.

We look forward to wearing our goofy hats and waking up early to get in some exercise before the day of eating begins.

Some people even wear full Thanksgiving costume to this event, many sit outside and watch the runners and walkers, and some even play live music from their driveways.

It was still a fun time to have our own "5K Turkey Trot" around our neighborhood. As you can see from the pictures we had an outlined route and yes! we brought out our silly turkey hats.

After the 5K, it was off to the HB park for a free fat burning class instructed by Shai, trainer at F45/Largo on East Bay Drive!

The Blue Jean Ball online auction will be held from February 23 - February 28, 2021.

While we can't be together in person this year, the need to support housing and homelessness has never been greater.

The 2021 Blue Jean Ball Committee is continuing our mission to support Religious Community Services (now known as Hope Villages of America) during this unprecedented time of COVID-19. While we are not able to host our traditional party, we are continuing our fundraising efforts through directed giving and an online auction.

For more than 50 years RCS (Hope Villages of America) has been dedicated to improving and saving lives in Pinellas County through programs and services that address hunger, homelessness, and domestic abuse.

In one year, RCS:

- Feeds 70,000 people through their Food Bank
- Distributes 4,000,000 pounds of food through their Food Bank
- Assists with 4,000 domestic abuse calls through The Haven
- Houses 550 families at Grace House

local fashion designer

Meet Lauren Petrovic,

FOUNDER OF LAURENTI DI PIETRO

elegance and sophistication

HBL is so honored to be partnering with fashion designer, Laurenti Di Pietro. Our February cover photoshoot could not have happened without the fashions from this classy, sophisticated and timeless line.

Lauren Petrovic was born in Chicago and raised in Florida. In 2020, she founded and launched her fashion line, Laurenti Di Pietro and its digital counterpart, Laurentidipietro.com. Petrovic is attending University in New York City studying International Relations, Trade and Marketing in the Fashion Industries.

Lauren is a 20-year-old classy young lady who has old-fashioned values and exquisite vision for her clothing and fashion accessories.

“I feel like a million dollars every time I am wearing these beautiful, high-quality and stylish fashions that Lauren has designed.” – Devin Pappas

Please enjoy our interview with this local Fashion Designer who will be heading to NYC!

HBL – What was the cardinal purpose in creating this fashion line?

LP: I always held this internal dialogue and a way of seeing the world around me that I couldn't approach in verbal conversation. Taking a dynamic intellectual and creative approach through business and fashion, I wanted to share a product that creates an intimate conversation as well as advocate and express the pragmatic ideals of global awareness, self-governance, and sophisticated living.

I believe it's not only important how a modern woman dresses her body, but also how she dresses her mind with ideals and values. There are timeless facets of ourselves that travel through generations which inspire a sophisticated woman's character to bloom. Tapping into the culture of western sophistication and modernity, this collection enables refined values of timeless elegance, grace and sophistication. I believe a woman's natural state lives in these realms, and each piece in the collection was crafted for women to be inspired to bloom these beautiful facets in their character.

HBL – How did this collection come to life?

LP: Growing up, my parents have always been patient with my ideas and supportive with my endeavors. During the last year, I was eager to bring my designs to life and start a line of my own. With no official business or means of production, I turned to my father for a small capital loan and started researching. A few months later I was holding the first complete product sample pieces.

HBL – What has launching this first collection taught you?

LP: I've learned circumstances are ancillary to our character and this entire gamut of human experiences is up to oneself to govern. Our choices and experiences paint our character, like an artist with each brushstroke painting this divine self-portrait. Among these things, it's important to never doubt your creative capabilities. I believe everyone has their own unique creative expression in the world; some tap into it through business, public service, some inventing, others the arts. I also believe an opulent and flourishing community denotes cultural creativity from its citizens. When creativity and character fuse with culture, what a community brings into being is constituted by cultural currencies of educational, moral, political and social ideals. As we trade and exchange these cultural currencies they allow our society to flow like water. Above anything, as citizens in a part of an interconnected world, we must collectively use our creative expression to facilitate sound orders during the perennial evolving paradigms in our local and international community.

Now of all times, we must not project the familiar into the future; because familiarity breeds stagnation. After the unforeseen events in 2020, each day I see more how disaster is divine and necessary for our character. Divinity is behind each of our failures, recklessness, and tribulations in our lives. Through experiencing different facets of life, disastrous and fortunate, we can decipher where our lives can take us.

BEHIND THE SCENES

HBL was approached to do a “Singles Spotlight” article by some of the single residents and HBL Sponsors. Ironically, the people who started this, chickened out once the Call to Action was published.

Once all the excited singles were picked, we had a meeting and decided that it would be fun to stage a photoshoot where “James Bond Meets Ocean’s 12.”

Then it happened, just like what happened with The Real Housewives of Harbor Bluffs, new friendships were formed from this experience; selfies were taken, high fives were happening, numbers were exchanged, and a new group of friends were found. This is the goal of HBL Network—to grow relationships, within the community, organically.

The photoshoot was scheduled for December 8th. Does anyone remember the weather on that day?

Yep – the coldest day of Florida’s year. It was the day when it was about 40 degrees and we were all freezing!

We started out at Roxy Clearwater, a trendy restaurant/bar located in Downtown Clearwater, in The District on Cleveland Street. (OMG—highly recommend the chocolate and caramel bread pudding).

The Roxy location is where the casual photoshoot was taken. After that, the “models” changed into their sophisticated fashion and accessories which were provided by fashion designer Laurenti Di Pietro and we all moved across the street to Kara Lynn’s Kitchen. The owner of this gluten-free restaurant set up a European café, for us, by placing black and white checked tablecloths.

Our last photoshoot was taken at the end of Cleveland Street where Sabrina Nova of Live Oak loaned us her brand-new Miami Blue Porsche GT4 to make this vision become a reality! Thank you, Sabrina. She is always willing to help make your neighborhood magazine special!

It takes a village to make things happen. HBL Network would like to thank the singles who enthusiastically participated in this Special Edition Article. (you will be meeting them all shortly, throughout this publication and at the HBL Outdoor Monthly Events)

Roxy Clearwater

Thank you to:

- Valentine and her team at Roxy Clearwater for providing our first venue for this photoshoot.
- Carolyn Bradham, owner of Kara Lynn’s Kitchen, a complete gluten-free and homemade restaurant.
- Sheila Neisler, from The District in DT Clearwater, Cleveland Street, who went above and beyond to make this event perfect. Sheila is also going to be the person spearheading The HBL Singles Mingle/Mardi Gras Party on February 19th.
- Lauren Petrovic, Designer of Laurenti Di Pietro Fashions, for providing the dressy look for our “Oceans 11” lady looks.
- Mike Otto, owner of Impact Media Agency, LLC for coming out and filming this shoot and interviewing some of the Sponsors.
- The Team at Bonefish in Belleair Bluffs for providing the venue for the second indoor photo shoot (at the last minute).

Bonefish-Belleair Bluffs

- Greta Green, owner of Green Pearl Photography for her professionalism, talent and skill in photography, amazing eye, attention to detail and patience (with a bunch of freezing models).

Please enjoy this “Special Edition of HBL.”

MEET JACK LAMBERT

“My Life Behind Bars- Handle Bars, that is.”
Jack Lambert

YOU ALREADY KNOW HIM -FROM “THE JACK AND PIP ADVENTURES”

Jack Lambert

It all started when I was 15. My father (Air Force Colonel) had been posted to a diplomatic assignment in Helsinki, Finland. Very few teens had cars in mid-1950s Finland, so I spent a lot of time riding on the back of friends’ scooters and mopeds. One day, my friend gave me the keys to his scooter and let me take it for a spin. I was hesitant at first, starting out on the paved road, but soon felt comfortable; it was intoxicating. When I turned onto a gravel side road I lost control and down we went. The resulting bloody hand and scratched scooter might have been a deterrent for some but for me, the infection had already set in. I had the “motorcycle disease,” and it’s been a lifelong illness.

My father was away fighting WWII when I was born in January 1943, so we didn’t meet until I was a year-and-a-half old. The military lifestyle (moving across the country every few years) was more of an education for me than school. In Nebraska I got my first gun—a 22 rifle, but I wasn’t really a hunter. In Rhode Island I learned how to sail, something I’ve enjoyed the rest of my life. In Florida and Louisiana, days were spent catching blue crabs. After attending nine different schools in different states and countries, I managed to graduate from JEB Stuart High School in Falls Church, Virginia to the surprise and delight of my family. In 1963 I moved to Florida to attend St. Petersburg Jr. College.

Motorcycles had been put on the back burner for a few years, but in the early ‘70s, the Japanese motorcycle companies were offering high quality, small bikes at reasonable prices and I couldn’t resist; I bought a dirt bike. Four years later, I parked the dirt bike and bought a Hobie Cat, for more family-friendly recreation. The boat was fun but I missed motorcycling and just didn’t have the time or money to do both...unless I sold my car. So in 1977 I sold my car and bought a Honda street bike that became my daily transportation.

In 1992, I got a call from Ray Hempstead (owner of Barney’s motorcycles in St. Pete). He was given my name by a mutual friend who vouched I could both ride and sell. He hired me for a temporary three-month sales job; I retired from Barney's 25 years later. My "dream job" had found me. I was general manager when Barney's was struck by lightning and burned down in 2000. How we rebuilt from the ashes is a story in itself, but our accomplishments as a team were amazing and a highlight of my life.

My love of motorcycles has taken me all over the country, introduced me to great people, and opened the door to many unusual experiences. I remember coming upon a tarantula migration in the middle of Texas. Thousands of the large, black spiders were crossing the road for miles; we had to weave through the mass trying to avoid as many as we could. Camping in the desert at night is an amazing light show of the milky way and shooting stars. Leaning into the wind, smelling the smells, feeling the temperature while your mind constantly balances the forces of gravity, centrifugal force, power application and traction...to this day it's still intoxicating.

MEET JENNY COMPTON

singles spotlight

By Jennifer Compton

*“Known around here as Jenny from the Block straight out of Compton.”
Jennifer Compton*

“I HAVE A HIDDEN LOVE FOR TENNIS”

I'm Jennifer Compton, known around here as Jenny from the Block straight out of Compton.

I'm actually originally from Sarasota. I'm a high school guidance counselor for a small alternative school in Pinellas County. As a former struggling teenager, I was drawn to helping other struggling teens. I love working with these kids, building relationships with them, and mentoring them through their high school careers. This year has been especially difficult because of COVID-19, but also very rewarding. I'm thankful I get to interact with my students face-to-face again.

I have a 16-year-old son named Jackson. He is currently in 10th grade and adjusting to his new school at Osceola Fundamental. My father lives in Sarasota and my mother lives in Belleair. We enjoy our one cat named Smitty, who we sometimes call “Sh*tty Smitty.”

Jenny with her son, Jackson

I enjoy eating healthy and trying out new, natural things. I love working out, it has become a great outlet for me. I workout mostly at my gym but have a hidden love for tennis and can't wait to get out on the court again this year!

Being single has been an interesting experience for me and quite different than how I thought it would be. It's been a good time to nurture new friendships and family relationships. Looking ahead, I hope to continue to be a loving mother, friend, and daughter.

In my new season of being single, I'll leave you with this prayer/poem written by anonymous.

Single Woman's Poem

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray for a man who's not a creep.
One who's handsome, smart, and strong,
Who's not afraid to admit when he is wrong.
One who thinks before he speaks.
When he promises to call, he doesn't wait six weeks.
I pray that he is gainfully employed,
Won't lose his cool when he's annoyed.
Pulls out my chair and opens my door,
Massages my back and begs to do more.
Thank you in advance and now I'll just wait,
For I know you will send him before it's too late.

Meet JERILYN FORSYTHE

“Carry a light suitcase, an easy laugh, and a happy heart.”

Jerilyn Forsythe

If you had quizzed me this time two years ago on where I thought I'd be right now, the Gulf Coast probably wouldn't have been my first — or fifth — guess.

In early 2019, I was toiling away as a senior editor at Denver's city magazine, 5280. I loved my job — I started as an intern in 2013 and often quip that I got my dream job right out of college — but over time, the daily grind wore on me. My desk slowly acquired magnets and postcards that said things like “If Not Now, Then When?” and “The Journey Is the Destination.” I devoured travel-minded books like Wild and To Shake the Sleeping Self, and it wasn't unusual for me to lay awake at night researching far away places (most notably, the Atacama Desert in Chile). Clearly, my #wanderlust was getting the best of me. I knew something inside me was stirring, but I didn't know toward what — or where — it would propel me.

From West to East and backpacker to beach bum, I'm always looking for the next adventure.

Jerilyn Forsythe

Finally, in July 2019, for no reason in particular other than that my apartment lease was up and there was no promotion on my immediate horizon, I resigned. I wasn't sure what I was going to do, but it wouldn't be sitting at a desk for eight hours a day. Over the course of a few weeks, I swiftly quit not just my job of nearly seven years, but my life as it were: I sold or gave away nearly all my belongings, one-by-one. I wrote dozens of goodbye/thank you letters. I held a large, boozy goodbye dinner at one of my favorite neighborhood restaurants (don't you miss those?). I packed up what was left of my stuff and shipped it to my mom's address in Indian Rocks Beach, where she and her husband had relocated from Arizona just two months prior. Alas, on August 3 — four days before my 30th birthday — my dog, Luna, and I got in my blue Subaru and started the 1,900-mile trek from the Mile High City to the Gulf Coast of Florida. I waved goodbye to my life in Colorado. The Rocky Mountains were, literally, in my rearview mirror.

I had previously visited the Sunshine State exactly three times in my life (Once as a baby, does that even count?). But when in doubt, you go to mom's house. It's not so much that I didn't have a plan; it's that my plan was to take a little break — a sabbatical you might say — to spend time with family and do a little traveling. Newly surrounded by family members between 60 and 80 years old, my sabbatical turned into a sort of “taste of retirement.” And it was glorious: I spent afternoons drinking poolside cocktails with my aunt in Harbor Bluffs; I took near-daily naps (a habit I shamelessly continue to this day); and, at least four times a week, I was beach-bound. Staying in my mother's guest bedroom at 30 wasn't exactly in my life plan, but it sure as hell didn't suck.

I also finally took that trip to northern Chile's Atacama Desert. After six weeks in South America, I returned in mid-November full of empanadas, cheap Latin beer, and gratitude. After a cumulative four months of “retirement,” I started to look for work. I think I'm one of the lucky ones because, within about a month, I landed an editorial writing contract. I never envisioned myself becoming a freelancer or self-employed, but that's what has transpired. A year has passed since that first contract offer, and I'm now a full-fledged contractor with an LLC who is happily juggling varied digital communications, writing, and editing gigs (hi, HBL fam!). It has been a pleasant surprise, to say the least.

Though flipping the table on my steady nine-to-five seemed a somewhat impractical decision at best, it was an undeniably fortuitous one. I ended up being perfectly poised to confront COVID-19: I was already working from home with a flexible schedule, close to family and, frankly, had basically zero friends here to socialize with anyhow. Though I had to give up my “digital nomad” dream of working-while-traveling in 2020, COVID's isolating orders brought in a different kind of adventure — a six-month lease at an Airbnb practically on the beach. I will always remember summer 2020 as the summer I was a full-fledged beach bum. Truly, there's nowhere I would've rather had to “stay in place” than the Belleair/Indian Rocks Beach area.

This community has become near-and-dear to my heart. True, I never thought I'd leave the Mountain West for a sub-tropical coastline. But I've dropped an anchor here in Florida and, no matter where my future travels may take me, I know I'll always come drifting back.

I'm an abstract mixed media artist who loves living in Florida! I'm a founding resident artist in the St Pete ArtsXchange (Studio #102), and my work is constantly influenced and inspired by the beach and the flora and fauna of our subtropical climate.

For me, The silver lining of COVID-19 for me has been the extra time I have to explore new painting techniques and color palettes. I was also able to launch another small business called Open Studio Time at the ArtsXchange. Basically, it invites anyone who wants to learn more about painting (whether they're picking up a paintbrush for the first time or returning to an old love) to come down to the Warehouse Arts District on Sunday and Tuesday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m.

When I'm not painting (or teaching others), I love to travel. I so look forward to going, well, pretty much anywhere once the pandemic is over!

My favorite travel stories come from a trip to Spain with a group of girlfriends to see the running of the bulls. We had the good fortune of watching the event from a local's balcony. Even how we got onto the balcony is a story in itself! The next day I decided to rent a car (manual) and we headed out to the Alhambra. Of course, we made a wrong turn at a roundabout and ended up in Southern France. Whoops. We ended up spending a beautiful day strolling around St Jean (aka St Jean Pied de Port) on the Atlantic coast.

That day is a wonderful example of a perfectly imperfect day, as we just went with the flow and explored the unexpected.

“I am Truly an Optimist and Seek Reasons to be Happy”

Brenda Ann Ehrke (Air-Key)[1]

I am a native Floridian. However, on a technicality, I was born in Fort Gordon, GA, while my dad was serving in the Army. I grew up in North Lauderdale. Fortunately, my parents did not move around like some other military families, so I had a familiar friend base throughout all levels of schooling.

Growing up in North Lauderdale was fabulous: I had horses, motorcycles, ATVs and plenty of wide-open space to ride. Quite the tomboy, I preferred fishing, hunting, and playing in the mud to the things other young girls seemed to be interested in. Today, I am as comfortable in a dress as I am in a pair of jeans or a ball gown!

I am truly an optimist and seek reasons to be happy. I enjoy cooking and trying new foods; there is nothing better than hearing praises after serving up a scrumptious meal! My therapy is sailing and boating. I like to dance and had a blast taking ballroom dance lessons a few years ago.

Content with myself, I feel blessed for my great health. Being easy going, I try my best to enjoy the moments in my life to their fullest. Comfortable at home, I do admit I love getting out — to shows, concerts, dinner, and being outdoors. I love being with friends and believe that making memories is what life is all about!

I have a small family; my parents are still alive, and I have a grown son who lives nearby with his fiancé. My two awesome cute Pomeranians, Buddy and Ty, add a great deal of joy to my life. I never come home to an unhappy face from either of them. The comedy from the two is pure joy some days.

My career is incredibly special to me and I love my role — helping people understand financial investing. My goal is to retire from Edward Jones and live the way my clients do: comfortably and financially secure! Thankfully, I have established a healthy life work balance and am on track.

When taking vacations, I choose someplace new just about every time. My objective is to see as much of our worlds' beauty and cultural differences as I can. I cruise or do land trips. Both are fantastic options!

One of my favorite travel stories is from August 2019, when a group of friends and I chose a cruise on the Oasis of the Seas out of Barcelona Spain for my birthday. That birthday will never be forgotten — because we missed our ship in Cinque Terre, Italy! Now, it was not our fault we missed the ship; the trains had been running on time all day and the ship was not scheduled to depart until 7 p.m. We had plenty of time to get back. At 3:20 p.m., we arrived at the platform, but the train did not. Nor did it for the following four scheduled times! By 6 p.m., I began calling the emergency number for travelers who miss their ship. Quickly I discovered they are not there to help you, but to comfort you. When the train pulled in, hundreds of distraught people on the platform all knew they had to get on that train too ... but as the doors rolled open the train was already totally full.

Against all odds, we all managed to squeeze in. I have never been crammed into such a tight space in my entire life! Each of us was nose-to-nose with complete strangers. Hundreds of people stuffed into a train with zero air and no open windows. Passing through each pitch-dark tunnel, I begged myself not to pass out. At our stop, we still had 10 minutes to get to the pier. In the parking lot, we joined crowds of people desperately looking for taxis but not one in sight. All 10 of our precious minutes were taken from us to figure out a sign in Italian near the taxi stand listing a phone number to call. Our driver sped like we were in an Indy car getting us back! Running to the door we found workers locking the place up. On the edge of the seawall, we stood in complete exhaustion and despair waving arrivederci to the stern of the Oasis of the Seas a mere 100-feet away drifting softly off into the sunset toward Rome — without us.

I appreciate my life greatly. There isn't much I would say I don't like...Well, except being single. I enjoy companionship and want a special man in my life whom I can love and create memories with.

Film and Television have been a major passion of mine as well. When I was back in my 20s, I had a blast conceptualizing, storyboarding, directing, editing and producing TV commercials for Chicago businesses. Paintball arenas, amusement parks and restaurants were a few of my favorite concepts/locations to work on. Working as an extra on Chicago films was something I literally could not get enough of. It was amazing to learn so many different aspects of the filmmaking process and also having the opportunity to meet such iconic stars such as Julia Roberts, Keanu Reeves, Cameron Diaz, Richard Gere and Morgan Freeman. Currently, I'm in the process of filming an independent horror film which is a lifelong dream that I look forward to crossing off my bucket list.

HE ENJOYS SPONTANEOUS, EXCITING AND FULFILLING LIFE ADVENTURES!

As a north shore Chicago suburban native, moving to sunny Florida was a major life change. It wasn't long before I was completely hooked on living the endless summer and the happiness it brings. The snow shovel, hat and gloves were traded in for a beach towel, shades and suntan lotion. Whether living in Chicago, Los Angeles or Florida, I have always enjoyed unpredictable, spontaneous, exciting and fulfilling life adventures.

Before becoming a Realtor, I pursued many other passions. I studied architecture at University Illinois Chicago and got my BA in Graphic Design at Columbia College Chicago where I also continued to study Fine Art and Film in Grad school. As a graphic designer, I worked for such clients as Walgreen's and Kraft Foods and as the Art Director for Restaurant Development Group (RDG - Responsible for two corporations and 13 restaurant concepts). It was so much fun designing, billboards, magazine ads, buses, catalogs, packages, menus and more.

While continuing to follow my other passions, painting fine art is currently at the top of my “Make Matt Happy” list. That brief moment right before my brush touches the empty canvas excites me. It is that energy and desire to see the final completed artwork that fuels me to create. Paintings have no limits, no rules, no restrictions. So many lessons are learned throughout the process, and the growth I feel as an artist after each painting is indescribable. Anything is possible on a canvas. After decades of life experiences and practice, I strive to evolve as a creative artist and hopefully as a human in general. Whether it is Luxury Real Estate Sales, Corporate Logo Design, Fine Art or Film, keeping an open mind while regularly learning and improving in all aspects of life is something I pride myself on. Always looking forward to life’s future adventures and awesome memories! Positive Attitude + Positive Actions = Positive Results.

MEET T.C. Sayles

“A HEART SO BIG,
IT HAD TO BE REPAIRED TWICE”
T.C. SAYLES

“Originally from California – Now Loving the Sunny Shores of Florida”

About 48 years ago, my mother decided to name me Timothea Chapelle. That is not my idea of a fun name — and I’m all about fun! Thankfully, my mother started calling me T.C. right away, and I made sure it stuck all the way to present! Originally from the beaches of Southern California, I now call the sunny shores of Florida my home and I am building a new life here with my 16-year-old daughter, Amara.

In 1978, I had open-heart surgery. Sounds like more fun, right? So much fun that I had to repeat it again in 2019! I was born with congenital heart disease, SupraValvular Aortic Stenosis, but I’ve never let it slow me down. In fact, after returning to kindergarten three weeks post-surgery, the teacher asked us to put our right hand over our heart to say the pledge of allegiance. As a joke, I put my left hand over the right side, pretending my heart was on that side. She tried to correct me to which I replied, this is the side my heart is on! She turned bright red and ran out of the class mortified. We all laughed. My first surgery was supposed to last 16 years, but it lasted 40, and my “tune-up” in 2019 should be my last. I am proud to be a Heart Warrior and proud of my so-called battle wound. I’m always in amazement of modern medicine.

In fact, my second surgery is what prompted me to start my own company in the healthcare field. The company, NTC Billing Solutions, is a full-service medical billing company that specializes in billing for dentists, audiologists, neurologists, optometrists, ophthalmologists, genetics, pain management and a few other areas.

Becoming a single mom was not in any of my palm readings — and moving my daughter to Florida was not her dream! California weather, the beach, surfing, and being on a show/movie set was her dream. But together we are navigating this journey, making it fun, and as a bonus, we get to share it with my wonderful mother (Who is also single ... and yes, I tried to convince her to partake in this piece!).

Sports are a big part of our lives, too. Being California natives, our house was bleeding blue for the Dodgers (yay!), and trust me it wasn't easy. While the children of the Tampa Bay Rays' general manager attend Amara's school, she still braved the halls with her Bellinger jersey and Dodger gear and facemask every gameday. Bets were flying and, yes, she is still reaping the rewards of those bets. We also always Fight On for our USC Trojans and, lucky us, our neighbors are alumni, too! In addition to watching sports, I love playing tennis, visiting museums, photography, traveling (though that's kind of on pause during COVID), adventure dining (foodie here), reliving eleventh-grade studies via my daughter (not really), and giving back to the community. In California, I ran a nonprofit called Vistas for Children, which raised money for children with Retinoblastoma (cancer of the eye), and I still consult for them from time-to-time.

Amara is a Junior at Canterbury School of Florida, cheer co-captain, an avid horse rider pursuing further education in Equine Studies, and a fabulous Maria Sharipova look alike (in skill and looks) on the tennis court. She's also a new driver — watch out! And, just like her mom, she's a Cali Girl to the core.

Together we love to bake, shop, boat, watch foreign series on Netflix, dress up Humphrey, the dog, and our three cats, Ginger, Lovey and Gilligan. See — fun!

What does my future hold? I can't say for sure, but with a kind heart filled with love, repaired twice, I hope to have more laughter, love, adventure, prosperity and a fantastic new man.

My Goal is to Die
with Memories,

Susan Brown

“Traveling Fills Me with Awe”

My name is Susan Brown and I have been a Florida resident for four years and sponsor of Harbor Bluffs Living for two years now.

I have two children—Elizabeth, 23, and Nickolas, 22—who make me proud every single day. I have no pets, but I am a new grandma to my son’s Australian Shepard, Brodie, who is still a puppy and has his own Instagram page.

I was born and raised in Germany and my accent is still noticeable—although it is now mixed with a bit of Long Island, where I lived for 23 years before moving to this beautiful corner of our country. I spent many years in the hospitality industry and traveling the world before settling in New York and starting a family in 1997. While raising my children, I worked in the public school system on Long Island for 15 years and taught children with special needs.

When my children left for college, I felt I needed a change. So, I packed a U-Haul and moved down to Florida, pondering what to do with my life for the future. I ended up buying a travel franchise and it was the best decision of my life. I do what I love, each and every day, even in these tough times. I get to visit and explore beautiful countries for my customers, whether it be in the Caribbean, Europe, or right here in the States.

Traveling fills me with awe; it gives up a glimpse of how little space we occupy in this world. For me, there is nothing better than a customer coming back from a trip and thanking me for making it the vacation of a lifetime.

In my spare time—and when I am not traveling—I like to work out (F45 is my favorite). I also volunteer with Julie Weintraub’s Hands Across the Bay Denim & Diamonds Committee. I like to ski, although there isn’t much snow around here, and I enjoy going to the shooting range. I’m getting pretty good at it. I love riding my bike on the Pinellas trail to Dunedin on Saturday mornings, going to the farmer’s market, spending time at our beautiful beaches, and going boating every chance I get. Guys with boats get first dibs!

Friends and family are very important to me and, even though we are spread around the continents, I always try and visit at least once a year.

I asked my kids to describe me in three sentences or less, they said: Very German, great baker, and sometimes needs help with her English grammar. I figured that!

My funniest (yet, not so funny) travel story: I got detained for eight hours at Miami Port when boarding a cruise for accidentally having live ammunition in my purse. I almost missed my cruise. I was mortally embarrassed but made good friends with the handsome fellas at Miami Port Authority.

Life is really good to me and I keep very busy, but it would be even better to share all of this with someone. I'm still looking for my forever travel partner to make new memories with. Is your suitcase packed?

Owner of Airport SUV, Enjoys Meeting All People!!

My name is Robert Segal. I'm the owner of Airport SUV, a transportation company. I was born in Calgary, Canada and raised in St. Paul, Minnesota. I moved to Indian Rocks Beach in 1994. I've never been married or had any children, but I've had the pleasure of being in love. Four times, actually. As a career chauffeur for 30 years, I've definitely gotten to see how the world works. I enjoy meeting all sorts of people from all sorts of different walks of life. And anything I can learn about will usually pique my interest.

HBL- What do you love about living in Florida?

RS- My favorite part about living here in Florida are the thunderstorms. The weather here is Mother Nature's coup de gras. The cumulonimbus, the lightning flashes at night, the building of the clouds on the sea breeze amazes me every time. I had the pleasure of living right on the sand for the first eight years here. And when you live on the beach, you fall in love with the beach.

HBL- What do you like to do in your free time?

RS- I have a saying that if you can do something in the limousine that I haven't seen before your night is free. So you can only imagine the experiences I've had. Right now, the love of my life is my dog Riley. She's a 12-year-old Shepherd Labrador Retriever. And she's the best dog. I also have two cats—Marshall and Mister Lee.

HBL- What's the first place you want to travel after the pandemic?

RS- I've had the chance to do an awful lot of traveling in my lifetime. Also with my career, I have over 3 million safe driving miles under my belt. So, I've seen most of this country and some of the old world. It's not so much where you travel, but who you're traveling with that really makes the difference.

HBL- What are your hobbies?

RS- My hobbies are being on the beach and hunting for sharks teeth. I enjoy playing golf, and just generally being outside here in Florida. I like the restaurants here but I really enjoyed cooking and I make the most incredible filet mignon.

HBL- What are you looking for in a partner?

RS- You don't get to decide who you pine for. They just come into your life and that's the most exciting part of love.

HBL- What do you want your future honey to know?

RS- When you're in the limousine business, you're basically 24/7. I don't make my hours my clients do (that could be a reason why I've been single most of my life). But I have no regrets about that.

I've done some living, and would love to find the right woman to share my life experiences with. If you do meet and date a lifelong bachelor, you can be assured that all his attention and finances are directed towards you.

I just consider myself an accountable, teachable, and passionate man. In general, I'm very happy. But I also understand that, in life, upon us all a little rain must fall.

HBL- What's next for you?

RS- I will continue to build my business. And during my pursuit of happiness, I will practice an old but simple rule: the Golden Rule.

The Host of The Daily JP Peterson Show, who Loves Sports and Cooking

I've lived in Florida my whole life and have been a sports fan as long as I can remember. I grew up in Hollywood, Florida with parents, sister and brother. My dad, William Peterson, helped design the infrastructure of Walt Disney World and was the Civil Engineer for the city of Hollywood. My mother, Roxana DeMilia Peterson, was a real estate agent and always the life of the party.

My mother was 100% Italian, and I grew up identifying with my Italian heritage. Each Sunday, my mom would make meatballs, homemade sauce, and lasagna for our family dinner. She taught me how to make it all from scratch. I will never forget that smell in the house when I came home, and always wanted to pass that tradition down to my kids as well...and I have. To this day, I have a passion for cooking which I owe all to my mom.

Growing up, I was fairly good at all sports but not great at anything. I knew I wasn't going to play college sports. I chose FSU over Duke and Columbia because I fell in love with the rolling hills, canopy roads and traditional brick buildings on the Tallahassee campus. I started my pre-law studies and realized that I never wanted to take another math class again! So, I majored in Media Performance/Journalism.

My first internship was in the sport's department at the local ABC Affiliate in Tallahassee. My first job was making $5 an hour shooting sports and working the weekend news for WTXL. But I was quickly promoted to their main sports anchor. It was a dream come true! I got paid to cover FSU sports and was able to interview my hero, Bobby Bowden, three times a week.

To date, I've been there for Tampa Bay's biggest sports moments—Lightning Hockey Night Live at Amalie Arena, the Bucs Super Bowl win in San Diego, the Bolts Stanley Cup win and the Rays World Series. I can't help but laugh when I remember my mom yelling from the other room, "You think you're going to watch sports on TV, all the time, and make a living?"

I got married in 1994 and had two beautiful children. My son, Cullen, graduated from Cambridge Christian and played on its State Champion runner-up football team in 2017. My Shea is an incredibly talented musician and singer at Cambridge Christian and plays basketball as well.

I love my life in Florida, but am still searching for that special someone.

If you would like to hear JP on the air, please set your pre-sets to 98.3 Pinellas, 96.7 Tampa and 820AM Tampa Bay or FanStreamSports.com. His show is daily 3pm-6pm.

JP will also be attending our HBL Events!

TESTIMONIALS

Who do you like and trust?

Finding the right company to do business with can be difficult. At HBL, we heavily screen all of our sponsors before deciding to partner with them, but we thought you might like to know what your neighbors and actual customers are saying about them.

McManus and McManus – Estate Planning Attorneys

“My experience with McManus & McManus has been wonderful, to say the least. They have helped me through the worst times of my life. Extremely professional and at the same time, caring and compassionate. They make complicated legal jargon easy to understand and always make sure to do what is best for their clients.

On a personal note, I consider the McManus family like my family. They always have my back and I trust them implicitly. I am forever grateful.” – Jeff

“I have been a client of this law firm for over twenty years and really appreciate the care and concern of this family-owned business. I set up a revocable living trust in 1998 and have made seven amendments to it. On a regular basis, a member of staff phones to ask me if anything has changed in my life that would warrant a change. Makes me feel like a valued client. If you haven’t made any estate planning arrangements, I highly recommend you contact McManus & McManus for a free consultation. You won’t find a more reputable and ethical law firm in the area. The new website for McManus & McManus is so much more user friendly than the old one.” – Lil

F45 Fitness

From the moment I started texting with F45, I felt like I mattered. In the very first class, I was welcomed by the owners and other gym members and immediately treated like I had been going for years, like family. I cannot tell you how valued that made me feel. –DeDe

“Thank you F45 Largo for providing outdoor classes at the Harbor Bluffs Park. Coach Shai is awesome and keeps us in shape and having fun. The classes are modified for all fitness levels. They are free to Harbor Bluffs residents. How amazing is that!” – Mary of Live Oak Lane

PureLife MediSpa

“Dear Doctor Fitz and Liz, I want to thank you both for what I consider two have been “saving my life.” I went to PureLife Medi Spa for CoolSculpting and through your visit experience, you found that I had a hernia and needed surgery. I can only imagine what might have happened if you had not discovered it. Previously, I had gone to a well-known local spa for a CoolSculpting assessment and they did NOT discover the hernia. I could only imagine the disaster if I had gone ahead with this CoolSculpting before the repair. So now it’s two months since my surgery it turned out that a four-and-a-half-hour surgery was much more extensive than a typical hernia repair. I’m still healing from it but I’m counting down the days until I see you both again for CoolSculpting –can’t wait – thank you so much.” – Linda

“Susan is so helpful, and patient – thank you for helping us with our travel and supporting charitable causes in our community.” – Julie Johnson Weintraub

Plumbing by Paul

“I’m going to keep this simple. Paul, Alycia, Missy, and EVERYONE on the team are consistently amazing. Always willing to go above and beyond. I’ve used them already for everything from simple clogs to large scale pipe installation. They’ve handled it all quickly, efficiently, and work has been of the highest quality. I’ve struggled to find a knowledgeable, professional, trustworthy plumbing company for years. That struggle is over and Plumbing by Paul is the only place I’ll call.” – Matt K.
