Happy Thanksgiving

Wishing You and Your Families
the Best Holiday Season

Your HB Living Magazine Team

publisher's note

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

We are Thankful for You!

Marc and I are so thankful for the residents of Harbor Bluffs who have shared their stories, will be sharing their stories, who come out to the HBL events, and to those who have made new friends through the HBL magazine and network.

We are also so thankful and grateful to the Sponsors that support this magazine. These Sponsors are the best of the best. They are professional, caring and community-oriented business owners and employees.

Seriously, not any business can get into the HBL magazine and network. We are very discerning about who we let in and each business must come from a trusted referral. We also take the time to talk with them about their business and in many cases, try them out personally.

If you are ever looking for services, please call the sponsors of YOUR neighborhood magazine first! We would love to have your feedback!

HBL is very philanthropic and loves to help the community. Thank you to everyone who has shared that passion and has participated in our local events, collections and fundraisers. If you hold a charity near and dear to your heart, we would love to help you.

Next, I am so thankful to the amazing and caring team that puts this magazine together for you each month: Yvonne Morris, Social Media Coordinator, from Crestwood Lane; Christine Vaughn, Editor, from Oakwood Drive; Suzanne Zygmunt, from 323 Photography Studio; Keya Garg and Marc, who does "Whatever Devin Wants" (he's so funny), from Live Oak Lane.

A special thumbs up goes out to all our sponsors who put together the fun, "Neighbors' Night Out" happy hours with complimentary food, drink specials and raffles. If you haven't made it to any yet, get it on your calendars! They are not-to-be-missed events!

Mark your calendars: November 9 from 7 pm-10 pm, HBL and HOA are throwing you a Family Party in the Park on Harbor View Drive. There will be complimentary food, live entertainment from Blue Moon 6 Duo, dancing, Vendor tents, BYOB and more!

Without our residents and Sponsors, the HBL Team could not put this magazine together or plan these events for you. We appreciate you!

Please participate by contacting me at Devin.pappas@n2pub.com. I am always looking for stories, ideas, pictures, topics and whatever else you think would be fun and exciting!

HAPPY THANKSGIVING. Please tag us with your Thanksgiving pics to #HarborBluffsLivingMagazine or @HarborBluffsLivingMagazine. Follow us, too!

We have a new column starting in this edition, called "Ask the Expert." Please email me any questions that you have been curious about and we will "Ask Our Experts." Questions could cover topics from home improvements, landscaping, organizational ideas, pet questions, clothing trends, diet, fitness, decorating tips, staying young, photography, art or anything you have been wondering about. Email me at Devin.pappas@n2pub.com.

Have a wonderful month,

Devin

FINE SHOES & HANDBAGS

Yvonne Morris & Terry Colbert

OF CRESTWOOD LANE ... ALTHOUGH THEY CALL IT “BESTWOOD LANE”

Family Members:

Yvonne Morris and Terry Colbert of Crestwood Lane live with their adorable fur-children, Mignon a 10-year-old Chorgie and Jackpot Annie, an 8-year-old Deer Head Chihuahua. These two cutie pies were featured in the “Pet of the Month,” Harbor Bluffs Living August 2018 issue.

Professions:

Yvonne runs a busy web design and marketing business, Consultel, Inc., that she founded in 1997 (see her ads in our monthly HB Living). She and her team create unique logo designs, custom websites, social media accounts, and paid online advertising. They specialize in SEO (search engine optimization) and SEM (search engine marketing) – helping their clients’ websites to be easily found on the internet.

“Some of our clients have been with us since I started the company, over 20 years ago,” Yvonne said. “We have redesigned some sites six different times; keeping their sites current with the trends and advanced technology.”

Yvonne graduated from New Mexico State University with a BA in journalism and media studies. She spent her early years working in San Diego, California with a magazine, a national telecommunications company, and later worked with the largest billboard / special events company in Atlanta, Georgia, prior to starting her own business.

Here is their story.

Hobbies:

“We love cooking Mexican and Italian dishes together, with Bruce Springsteen on the radio in the background. We often entertain the ‘usual suspects’ (neighbors, family, and extended family) for dinner, a few rounds of foosball, darts, and maybe some card playing,” Yvonne said.

Most evenings, the couple can be found chilling on the couch with their two little dogs, watching action movies or historical documentaries. They’re both huge history buffs. Terry’s favorite pastime and hobby is growing herbs and vegetables from seeds, both indoor and outdoor. He is currently growing five different lettuce types in hydroponic containers and has multiple mild to hot pepper plants. Farm-to-table in their house is less than 20 feet. In fact, Terry has set up the bathtub in his office suite as another indoor growing area. When Yvonne’s not practicing yoga, she likes to spend her free time with her 82-year-old mother, Yolanda. They Terry is a seasoned entrepreneur and eCommerce expert. He currently operates an eCommerce company that sells products worldwide on Amazon to consumers and business customers. In addition, he supports Yvonne’s business with tech support, SEM and hosting services. Yvonne boasts about Terry being ranked in the top 3% of Google specialists nationwide. “Aside from being ‘my rock,’ he seriously, ROCKS! My clients love him!” Yvonne said.

Prior to the online world, Terry was a private investment banker working with numerous small to medium-sized companies, advising and directing them in their efforts to raise operating capital via equity and/or senior and subordinated debt financing. He represented the owners and/or senior management in their efforts to sell or buy companies.

In the early ‘90s, he served as chairman, CEO and president of a publicly-traded company, headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia. He was directly responsible for the acquisition of over thirty companies, several substantial financing, including leading his company’s Initial Public Offering (IPO) on NASDAQ.

Terry graduated from the University of Houston, where he majored in biology. He later completed an Executive MBA program and was a guest speaker at Commercial Underwriter seminars on the mechanics of IPOs, and a guest lecturer to MBA candidates at Vanderbilt University on business issues and management of publicly traded companies, and the IPO process.

run errands, shop, swim, and try new places to eat. “I’m super lucky to have my mom in my life, and have her living nearby,” Yvonne said.

Restaurants you can see this couple at:

When they’re with a big group (neighbors and friends), they like to eat Mexican or Thai food. When it’s just the two of them, they like to sit at a bar chatting with their favorite bartenders – Seaweed bar (Chris and Tony); Columbia Restaurant bar (Justin, Joe, and Amanda); and at Aqua Prime, they love hanging out with Rachel, a native New Mexican.

Vacation Destination:

“It’s really hard to say, since I’ve lived in some pretty amazing places,” Yvonne said. She was born in Taos, New Mexico, spent her early childhood with her three older siblings in Santa Fe and Albuquerque. The family later moved to Medford, Oregon, and then Yvonne ended up attending high school in the beautiful California Napa Valley wine country. During a college summer break, she spent three months living in Paris, the South of France, and Beverly Hills, California. After graduating from college, Yvonne packed her bags and moved to Florence, Italy. There she spent eight months working, traveling throughout Italy, and going on to Spain with her mother.

They landed in Marbella, Spain, where Yvonne lived for one year before returning to the U.S. to live in sunny La Jolla, California. While she was living in beautiful Del Mar, California, she met Terry.

A year later, in the mid-’90s, she moved to Atlanta, Georgia, to work in the city and be closer to Terry. They lived in Dunwoody, a suburb of Atlanta, for several years, before moving to Las Vegas, Nevada. In Vegas, they enjoyed the scenic mountains and lakes, the liveliness of the Las Vegas Strip, and the close vicinity to California, for 12 years.

Yvonne said that she feels blessed to have lived in so many wonderful places. And Terry, who is also an enthusiastic traveler, became a Delta Million Miler at a young age, due to his countless national and international travels for business and pleasure. We can understand why close vacation destinations like Mexico, Sanibel Island, and local beaches are some of their most sought-after vacation spots, with an occasional trip to Europe. Between the two of them, they’ve put in some hefty miles.

Sports Teams:

Having attended many games while living in Atlanta, they both still follow the Atlanta Falcons and Braves. Although Yvonne likes Drew Brees (a former San Diego Charger QB), she considers herself to be a New Orleans Saints Who Dat fan first. So, there’s always a bit of rooting going on for rival teams, Falcons vs. Saints. On occasion, you can catch them watching or attending a Bucs game and a TB Lightning match.

TV show/movie:

Right now, they’re engrossed in the British drama series, Peaky Blinders. The pair often watch Forensic Files, or an action film or an autobiography.

Music:

They like to listen to Bruce Springsteen, Sting, Jonny Lang, Eric Clapton and the Beatles. Terry plays the electric guitar – he was in a band as a kid.

Where are they originally from?

We heard about Yvonne’s upbringing, but what do we know about Terry Colbert, commonly known as “TC”?

Terry was born in Newport, Rhode Island, while his father was stationed at Naval Station Newport. In the early 70s, his parents moved Terry and his little sister, Cathy, to Houston, Texas, where Terry attended first through 12 the grade. His interest and skills in math and science led the way to his career choices and hobbies, later in life. At his parents’ auto body shop, he began building go-carts and then moved on to working on vehicles for drag racing. After graduation from the University of Houston, Terry landed a job as an up and coming young executive for a Fortune 500 company in Silicon Valley, CA. His company moved him to Tampa in the early ‘80s, where he became a father to Trey Colbert, now 38 years old. Shortly thereafter, the same company moved him and his family to Atlanta for easy access to a much larger airport.

Their love for Harbor Bluffs

They bought their home on Crestwood (“Bestwood”) in December 2015 and moved in at the end of January 2016. Within a few months, Yvonne became involved with the Neighborhood Watch to meet more neighbors and to help improve safety awareness. She began sharing safety tips and social posts on Nextdoor, including Neighbors’ Trivia Night Out.

That’s where Marc and I met Yvonne and Terry for the first time. We chatted about our plans to roll out the Harbor Bluffs Living magazine. After a couple of social gatherings, Yvonne agreed to join me in posting on social media (Facebook, Instagram, and Nextdoor) for our magazine. We heard that Terry was a block hero during Hurricane Irma. He helped with generators, installing storm shutters, storing refrigerated/frozen goods, charging cellphones, cleanup and moral support. With his keen sense of humor and wit, he kept everyone laughing and in fairly good spirits considering the grim circumstances.

What is your favorite part about living in this neighborhood?

Terry and Yvonne said they love the water, whether boating, fishing, kayaking, swimming or paddleboarding – the proximity to the Intracoastal and Gulf is ideal. They added that their wonderful neighbors make living in HB so much fun! The couple often hosts dinner parties or go to plays, comedy acts and dinners out with each other. It’s not uncommon for all of them to give and borrow things back-and-forth – whether it’s a stick of butter, a serving dish, extra tables, or a ride somewhere. They’re all there for each other.

By fall of their first year on the block, Terry and Yvonne became instant favorites with a terrific Halloween party, with everyone in crazy costumes. It was also Terry’s 60th birthday which made the festivities all the merrier.

“I especially like attending the Harbor Bluffs Living social events,” Yvonne said. “Devin, you have truly done an amazing job with the magazine. Harbor Bluffs and the community seem to be coming together every month. It feels really good to be part of this. Thank you!”

We couldn’t do this without great neighbors like you two and our Sponsors who make this possible! Thank you so much for sharing this incredible story with all of us!

Love your new outfit from Suzette’s on the Rocks, super stylish and perfect for fall.

The Magic of Color for Your Guest Bedroom

In Florida, we tend to prepare for the holiday season at least two to three months in advance. Everybody loves visiting their Floridian friends and family! When deciding how to spruce up your guest bedroom, keep in mind utilizing color is a special treat for our Northern guests. Bringing in the feeling of fun, excitement, and joy with splashes of coral, ocean teal and sunshine yellow is sure to make a welcoming retreat for anyone coming out of the white chill of winter.

In the room above, my team transformed a white bedroom into a fun guest room for grandchildren and the whole family. Accenting the Tommy Bahama furniture with custom bedding, a soft woven wave area rug and finishing off the window with a hint of teal trim pulls this room together and ensures guests always wake up with a smile.

Other tips for welcoming guests and making them feel special are:

- Guest towels set in the bedroom. Add trim that matches the bed covering or window treatment.
- Purchase a journal and a special pen. Leave it open on the night table with a personal note like, "Sweet dreams!" or "We are happy that you are here!"

From the Desk of Susan Brown about her recent trip to The DR

THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

is a Beautiful Country with Hospitable People

DON'T CROSS THE DR OFF YOUR BUCKET LIST BECAUSE OF BAD PRESS

Early on in September, I had the pleasure to attend a familiarization trip for travel agents to the Dominican Republic. The recent bad press about this beautiful country has done tremendous damage to the economy, the tourism and the wonderful, warm and hospitable people on this tropical island.

During my nine-day stay I visited 10 different properties; I spoke to general managers and directors of sales and all of them assured us and demonstrated to us their impeccable safety standards. I have had my fair share of drinks from the minibars, hotel bars, restaurants, and snack bars. Not once did I feel unsafe or sick, quite the contrary.

The Dominican Republic depends on tourism for its livelihood and so many people are laid off because of the stark decline in visitors. I can only speak from my experience and I am happy to Zoetry Agua – A serene and luxurious getaway and ideal for weddings.

I liked that the beach is not over-crowded and you have your own little corner of paradise.

One of the many pools at Onyx. There is always a free chair for you!

Breathtaking view from an ocean-view suite.

Enjoying a great steak after a long day.

Suites are adorned with sophisticated Caribbean furnishings, gourmet dining, top-shelf spirits, 24-hour room service, daily refreshed mini-bar.

Lobster Dinner with toes in the sand ... The warm hospitable attitude of the Dominican people is simply unmatched.

Attention to detail makes you feel special and pampered!

Now Onyx Punta Cana

If you want to bring the family, I recommend the Now Onyx Resort in Punta Cana. It is located right next to the Breathless Resort, which is adults-only but has exchange privileges. Active and lively settings provide entertainment for guests of all ages, including 16 swimming pools, the supervised Explorer's Club for Kids with Red Cross-certified staff and Core Zone Teens Club. Did I mention the food is delectable?

report that this destination and its resorts are beautiful. Powdery sand beaches, turquoise waters, tasty foods and of course premium beverages delight all your senses. There are many different properties on the island, most of them all-inclusive, to please even the most sophisticated traveler.

One of my favorite visits was Secrets Punta Cana, an adults-only hideaway, located in an exclusive gated community of Cap Cana. The glistening white sandy beach only comes close to our famous Clearwater Beach. Junior Suites with Ocean View Swim Out Pool make you not want to leave your room but that would be a disservice because there is so much more to this property. Spa Services are divine and if you book the Preferred level, a must-do in my opinion, daily hydrotherapy is part of your service. There are many gourmet restaurants and no reservations are required.

I always judge a resort by its desserts and I wasn't disappointed. This is afternoon tea at the Preferred Club.

If you are looking for the next fabulous getaway, whether with your loved one or the whole family, call me and I will find you just the right resort to make this your best vacation ever.

Please take your magazine on your vacation, snap a photo, and send it to us Devin.pappas@n2pub.com or text 727-657-9615.

David Cruze Jr.: “Nothing Competitive is Stress-free”

Code TFUE Gamer and Skimboarder from Live Oak Lane

We have often wondered if video gaming is a sport. HBL met a 14-year-old gamer from Live Oak Lane who explained that gaming is called an ESport. His name is David Cruze Jr. and he is a freshman at Largo High School. He offered information that gaming is extremely competitive, takes intense eye/hand coordination, requires a lot of energy and can get your heart rate up.

I guess we have our answer, certainly sounds like a sport to us!

David started gaming four years ago by playing “GTA” and “Minecraft.” However, in 2017, he was introduced to “Fortnite” by watching YouTube videos of people playing this new popular video game and he never turned back. David said that “Fortnite” is a free download on X-Box and PC, but you can buy new characters that usually cost $10–$20. Each season, new updates are released, like “Season X,” which is the newest version. (We are wondering if these characters end up on Santa’s letters?)

HBL: What is “Fortnite” about?

DC: It is a Battle Royale game of survival where 100 people jump out of a bus, collect weapons and fight each other until one person is left. My gaming name is CruzeChaos. Each game lasts about 30 minutes.

David is an acquaintance/friend with TFUE (Turner Tenney), the most well-known “Fortnite” player, whose net worth is $5 million. Even though David likes to watch YouTuber, Dellor, break his keyboard when he loses, his favorite mentors are YouTuber TFUE and Twitch Streamer. This is where David learns new techniques and gets tips for improving his performance and increasing his score in “Fortnite.”

David told us there are gaming tournaments at Countryside Mall. The last time he competed in one, he placed fifth out of 30 players.

HBL: What skills does it take to be a successful gamer?

DC: You need to be good at coordination and speed. You must have strategic thinking and study techniques, and you must be disciplined with practicing. Gaming is sometimes frustrating, but nothing competitive is stress-free.

HBL: What are your goals?

DC: I would like to have a name in the gaming industry.

David with Jack Tennyson.

David with Turner Tennyson.

HBL: With your determination and dedication, we look forward to taking that journey with you.

During our conversation with David Cruze Jr., we learned that he also is a skimboarder and enjoys hitting the weights at the gym.

He has been skimboarding for two years. He became interested by watching the Squad Skim Camp on the YouTube Channel. His friend, JoogSquad (Jack Tenney), who ironically is TFUE, Turner Tenney’s brother, spearheads this.

David recommends that if anyone is interested in starting skimboarding, they should participate in the Skim Camp located every summer on Indian Rocks Beach.

HBL: Who is your mentor?

DC: His name is J Carter. He takes me skimboarding and is also friends with JoogSquad, Turner Tenney and my neighbor, Justin Boisclair. We have so many of the same interests; he is very easy to talk to and he is fun.

J is the lead singer in the band Seranation. The band recently has been traveling and touring all over the USA, which limits our time together. However, J texts me all the time, and when he is home, he takes me to the gym and teaches me how to lift weights safely and correctly.

HBL: David, thank you so much for sharing your story with us. You are an incredible young man and we look forward to following your progress with gaming, skimboarding and weightlifting throughout your high school years.

If you have a great kid or would like to suggest one, please email me devin.pappas@N2pub.com.

BENEFITING HANDS ACROSS THE BAY

PureLife Medi-Spa Raises $45,000 for Charity with Luxury Bingo Event

PureLife Medi-Spa hosted a Luxury Bingo event at the Belleair Country Club in August, raising more than $45,000 for Julie Weintraub's Hands Across the Bay. Attendees enjoyed 12 games of Bingo with all game prizes valued at more than $500. Guests were especially excited to play the last game of the evening, a 50/50-style game with a cash prize of more $2,050!

The elegant evening featured a silent auction, raffle prizes, delicious food and tons of fun. With more than 160 people attending, guests enjoyed a variety of Bingo callers, including Julie Weintraub, domestic abuse survivor and Hands Across the Bay advocate, Melissa Dohme Hill and Board Members, Dr. Joseph Fitzgerald and Devin Pappas. Hands Across the Bay is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization helps families in crisis, neglected animals and veterans in need, as well as provides suicide/anti-bullying prevention and domestic violence advocacy in the community.

The funds raised at this event support of the 10th Annual Tampa Bay's Dancing with the Stars event held on October 5. PureLife Medi-Spa's dancer and ambassador, Lauren Connors, is competing as a celebrity dancer. PureLife, the presenting sponsor for the dance competition, is a long-time supporter of the charity.

"We absolutely love to sponsor Tampa Bay's Dancing with the Stars," said PureLife's Operations Manager and Owner, Elif Fitzgerald. "For us, it's a labor of love. Hands Across the Bay assists many families in crisis, it feels great to know that the proceeds raised from this event truly impact people in need in our community. Thanks to everyone that supported this event with tickets, donations and sponsorships."

Thank you, Harbor Bluffs Residents and Sponsors who came out to support this event, have a blast and win amazing prizes.

HELP US GATHER'S COMMUNITY INCLUSION AWARD

TREASURE ISLAND FUN CENTER

In the heat of summer, when many people are escaping the Florida sun by heading to the beach or staying at home, Treasure Island Fun Center is an air-conditioned escape for an afternoon of family fun.

Treasure Island Fun Center was founded in the 1960s. Their location in Seminole is the largest arcade in Pinellas County, offering more than 150 games, rides and much more.

On Saturday, September 7th, Treasure Island Fun Center opened an hour early to welcome a group of more than 70 individuals with disabilities and their loved ones for an arcade event hosted by Help Us Gather (HUG).

HUG is a local nonprofit that advocates for inclusion and connects people with disabilities to social events and activities. HUG covered the cost of entry so dozens of families and many friends from local group homes could have an afternoon of fun, games and friendship.

By opening its doors early, Treasure Island Fun Center helped ease individuals with sensory differences into this new, bright and sometimes loud environment. This gave attendees with disabilities a chance to adjust and get comfortable with their surroundings, making sure all families had a positive experience while at the arcade.

HUG commends the Treasure Island Fun Center staff on their willingness to make adjustments and accommodate individuals of all abilities at the arcade.

You can learn more about Treasure Island Fun Center at TIFunCenter.com.

PUMPKIN MAPLE PIE, OH MY!

Perfect Thanksgiving Dessert

Pumpkin Maple Pie

Crust:

2 Cups Flour
2/3 + 2 Tablespoons
Shortening
5-6 Tablespoons Water

Measure flour and cut in the shortening. Add water to the right consistency. Roll thin and line pie pan. (Save a small ball for the leaves on top.)

Mix the filling:

For Regular-size
Pie Pan

- 2 Cups Canned Pumpkin (16 oz can)
- 1 ¼ Cups Whipping Cream
- ¾ Cups Real Maple Syrup
- 3 Eggs
- 1 Tablespoon Cointreau
- 1 teaspoon Vanilla
- ½ teaspoon each Allspice, Nutmeg and Ginger

For a deep-dish pie pan, use 32 oz pumpkin and double all of the other ingredients.

Bake 350° for 40 minutes.

While pie is baking, make leaves for the top:

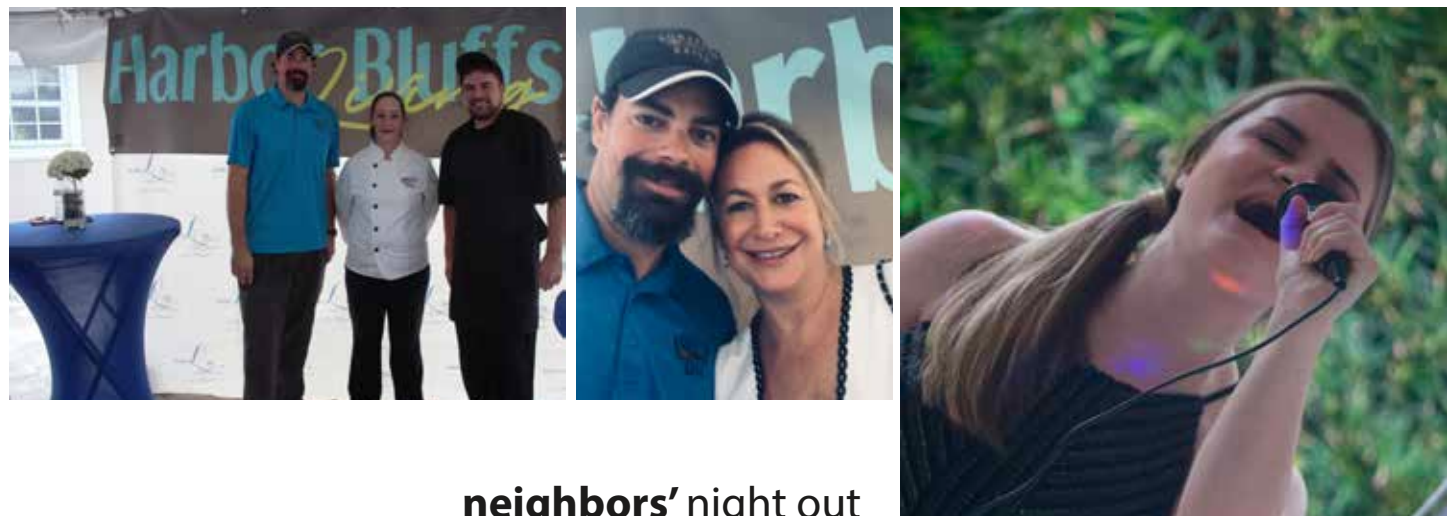

Roll thin the ball of pie crust. Using a dried maple leaf, outline the Wleaves (Make 3). Scar the lines within the leaf, and rub lightly with cinnamon.

Place leaves on top of pie filling with the base of the leaves working from the center. About 10 mins before it's finished baking add the leaves on top.

Bake 350 for an additional 10 minutes.

Please share your family's favorite recipes with us!

WOWED THE CROWD AT PURELIFE MEDI-SPA

While Bonefish and Village Inn Fed the Crowd

Cierra Reynolds is an 18-year-old graduate of the Pinellas County Center for the Arts class of 2019 vocal program. Cierra has been singing since her elementary school days at Anona Elementary where her talents were discovered early on. Her training and talent has led her to earn the highest scores at vocal competitions in local and state competitions, has led to earning many solos performances and she was even selected to be a featured performer at Largopalooza.

Cierra was asked to sing the National Anthem at The Rays and Red Sox game in June 2019. Later that same month, she traveled to Atlanta to audition for “The Voice,” appeared on “Great Day Live WTSP CBS 10” and was featured on the cover of The Tampa Bay Times.

Cierra just started her college studies to further her musical career and plans to work towards becoming a performer while earning a degree in music education!

A special thanks to Dr. Joe Fitzgerald and Elif Fitzgerald, owners of PureLife Medi-Spa for hosting HBL Neighbors' Night Out; Niko Hales and gang, from Bonefish, for cooking and serving complimentary food; and Danny Lehan, owner of Village Inn, for providing their delicious pies!

If you missed this event, our next event is our popular Buy/Sell and Trade Event on September 29 from 12–5 at 117 Live Oak Lane. Ladies, this is a not-to-miss event!

ask the expert
By Rinda Mizelle, Owner Bloomtown Florist

Is there any Advantage to Using 1-800 Services to Place Your Flower Orders? ABSOLUTELY NOT...SHOP LOCAL FOR BEST SERVICE, PRODUCTS AND PRICES!

Is there any advantage to using 1-800 services or national marketing websites, to place flower orders?

Absolutely not. It makes no sense to involve a middleman in your very personal flower order when long-distance phone charges are ancient history and virtually all florists have their own websites.

Most consumers placing orders with a 1-800 service or a floral internet marketing company, have no idea that this middleman is going to turn around and forward (fax) their order to a local florist and then keep almost 30% of the order's value, or, in some cases, much more. Be assured you are doing business with a fax machine with nary a flower in sight.

Also, remember, if you do place an order with one of these companies and you have a problem with the quality or delivery of your order, you will not be able to talk to the owner, designer, or delivery person at the florist who actually filled the order. You will speak with someone in a service center (most often in a foreign country) who then has to try to contact the florist that filled your order and... you get the picture. Very frustrating.

So how do you avoid the headaches?

Always go online and search for a local florist close to your recipient — this will keep your delivery cost down. Read the reviews on that website — this assures that the reviewer actually did business with that florist. And lastly, know that the stock photos on a florist's website are not your only choices; you can request any flower and stem count you want!

If you need assistance finding a florist, local or otherwise, always feel free to call Rinda at BloomTown Florist, (727) 559-7177. I will be more than happy to assist you.

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving!

LADIES FASHION BOUTIQUE OF BELLEAIR BLUFFS

Classic Modern Apparel for Ages 35-99

FASHION-FOOD-FUN

Marsha and Bill Uhler moved from Irwin, Pennsylvania (the Pittsburgh Steelers Side of the state) to Belleair in 1999. Marsha had retired from teaching K-2 for 30 years in the Norwin School District. Bill had run a food concession business, Mr. Bill's Fine Foods, which he continues to operate in the area.

Marsha joined Cassi & Company in 2003 when she was hired by the original owner Sandee Shaw. In 2013, Marsha became the new owner when Sandee retired. They remain good friends and you just might see her at the boutique. Cassi & Co. is a ladies fashion boutique dealing in clothing that is "Classic Modern Apparel." The shop's goal is to sell moderately priced clothing that appeals to the 35- to 90+-year-old woman who enjoys dressing classy.

The women who work in the store strive to make the boutique fun and pressure-free. Mary Cales, Donna Cute Moyer, Char Slaughter and Beth Monterio have been with Cassi & Co. long enough to have gotten to know the customers, and have made friends with many of the regulars, who have become more than just "customers."

One unique thing about Cassi & Co. is that it is the ONLY BOUTIQUE with Little Guy III (aka Marsha and Bill's four-legged child). He follows Little Guy I and Little Guy II.

The Belleair Bluffs area is a wonderful conglomerate of businesses. All of the merchants at the Plaza 100 are some of the best around. Most locals will remember attending the Christmas Stroll which is always a fun time for all who attend.

Over the years, Cassi & Co. has been very active in the community. Marsha and Bill enjoy volunteering in some of the charitable events through-out the area. Some of the events include Eckerd Raising Hope (Have a Heart Fashion Show), Gracie's Big Splash, Fashions of Belleair to benefit Veterans Mall, Humane Society of Pinellas, Sun Coast Performing Arts Center, Belleair Run for the Rec, and the Belleair Concert Series.

Cassi & Co. is open Monday through Friday 10-5:30 and Saturday 10-4. 100 Indian Rocks Road N. The boutique can be found on Facebook.

pet of the month

Meet Suzie and Gracie

HARRINGTON

Sister Doggies from Crestwood Lane

Family member names: Jim and Jeannie Harrington

Pets' name: Suzie (black lab) and Gracie (Yorkie terrier)

Type of animal/breed: Labrador Retriever and Yorkshire Terrier

Male or female: Both doggies are girls.

Pets' ages: Suzie is about 12 and Gracie is now 5

HBL: Where/why did you get your pet?

JH: Suzie was picked up from a friend in Palm Harbor and Gracie came to us from a neighbor in Seminole.

HBL: Is there a story behind its name?

JH: Suzie is named after Jeannie's best friend. Gracie's "grandma" (Jeannie's mom who died in 2013, a year before our little girl was born) touched us from heaven with a bit of God's precious "grace." Her name is a reminder to us to always remember a beautiful woman and Mom, who lived on this side of heaven for 90 years.

HBL: Anything special or unusual about them (talents/quirks)?

JH: Suzie will do a big stretch if you tell her that she's going to get a back scratch. And Gracie will be a very nice girl for a treat and sits down to wait.

HBL: What do you like best about your fur babies?

JH: They both love us unconditionally in their own special ways.

HBL: Any funny stories?

JH: The day we picked up Susie, we immediately took her to PetSmart and bought all the usual things that you purchase for a puppy: Doggy treats, toys, a big bed that would accommodate a Labrador, a vest, and a ball thrower. We'd known from experience with other labs that they were very playful, and like any puppy, just full of energy. So, on the first day home, we started playing and throwing treats and tennis balls to her. Unfortunately, Susie wasn't very coordinated. The "slingshot" thrower we bought for her launched the tennis ball high into the air and it landed just a few feet short of the outside wall. Susie, with her big long paws but puppy-sized torso, slammed into the wall. Crunch! No worries though. It didn't hurt her at all, and she just kept retrieving the ball!

This next story is about Gracie. It was funny and cute, but it didn't start out that way. In fact, it could have turned out tragic. The day after we brought her home, we were all sitting down cross-legged on the living room floor, playing with our new little puppy, thrilled, as she rolled, flipped, and high dived off the recliner, all good times with zilch problems.

Gracie – all 17 ounces of her – loved attacking her chew toys, shaking them ferociously. Suddenly, she tore around the room with a chewy in her mouth and leaped onto the couch, then scampered onto the arm and lost her footing, and fell backward with her four paws up in the air, her spine plunging to the ground. She landed right on her back! But after bouncing up off the floor, she flipped 180 degrees and zipped off for some more doggy fun!

For an excruciating second, we thought she would break her pocket-sized back and wind up in the doggy ER. Those were, for us, the scariest two seconds of her life.

HBL: How spoiled are your pets?

JH: They have it all: A/C, food, water, medicine, A/C, more food and comfy sleeping accommodations and still, more food and A/C.

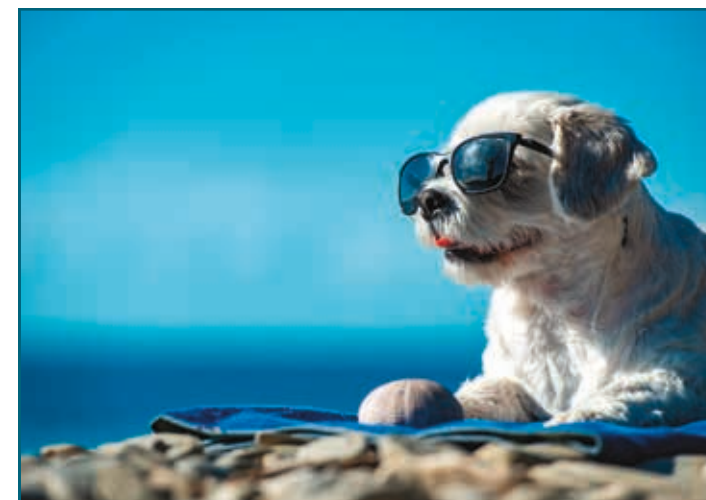

HBL: What else should we know about your pet and/or how your pet has enriched your home/family?

JH: Their delightful personalities and "doggish" ways keep us company and will always be with us, even after they're gone.

HBL: Thank you for sharing your Precious Pets with our readers.

If you would like to share your Precious Baby with us, please email Devin.pappas@N2pub.com.
